Sunday, May 7th, 9:30am

We are embarking on a journey to help us understand our congregational strengths, needs, and hopes as a basis for being more effective and intentional in our mission here at Broadway.

This will be a significant focus for our congregation over the next several months and we need everyone to participate and be engaged in this process. We hope to come through this effort with a more unified, clear, missional direction for Broadway.

Dr. Carlus Gupton will be introducing this process to our combined adult class, as well as bringing the message during the Worship hour.
