As You Pray

Roger Brandon spent some time at Baptist this week for tests and monitoring.

Terri Drake, friend of Damon & Debra Cates, passed away on Tuesday after a battle with cancer. They appreciate our prayers on her behalf and ask that we continue to remember her family in the wake of her loss.

Reta Houser left Tuesday, February 6th to begin a journey to Australia. Her brother, Gary Wadley, is nearing the end of his battle with cancer, and she will be going to help care for him in his last days. Prayers for safe travels, peace of mind, and comfort appreciated.

Each Thursday in February a group of women will be having a Bible study will members of the community as part of our Christmas Blessing follow-up. Please be praying for these souls that their desire to know Christ will increase and that our time with them will be positive and lead to continued relationships.

Many are sick with covid, flu, and other seasonal ailments. Please be checking in one another.

There is a form where thoughts & ideas can be shared on one side and ministry involvement interest can be marked on the other.

There is also a survey that will help guide the planning of Women's Small Groups that we hope to get going soon.

Let's Restock the Pantry

A few weeks ago we mentioned another large stock up to help us prepare to serve our community this Spring.

On the table where you collect your bulletin there are Restock Shopping Lists. These are organized by the first letter or your last name, just as we did in the fall.

This is a fresh list so, if you still have a copy from the Fall Restock, it will not include all the items that match our current needs.

Shopping begins TODAY.

Collection will be Sunday, February 18th. That Sunday morning all donated items will be collected down front, filling the stage.
