As You Pray

William Osborne will be having an outpatient heart procedure on Wednesday, August 21st. Prayers for healing and peace of mind appreciated.

Keep in your prayers:

Our families with children just starting school.

Our families with kids going to new schools.

Our parents juggling children at multiple schools.

Our parents moving their child into a dorm for the first time - or the last.

Our families adjusting to new schedules & expectations.

Our grandparents helping to carry the load of these new & varied schedules.

Our children meeting new friends, and teachers.

Our children as they take on new experiences, concepts, & frustrations.

Our teachers meeting so many new children with a variety of personalities & needs.

Our teachers engaging with difficult family situations & home lives.

Our Broadway family, that we can be supportive of the challenges each individual is facing from the youngest to the oldest; those facing back-to-school, and those not.
