As You Pray

We recently launched an opportunity on Facebook for the community to submit prayer requests. A minister records a prayer specific to their requests as a response to their message.

Please be praying for these individuals as they share their vulnerabilities and that their lives can see a turn for the better as they trust God with their concerns.

Be praying for our ministers as they find the right words to offer comfort, support and advice to these individuals that they may make lasting connections by showing the love of Christ to those reaching out.

Dustin Campbell has not been feeling well and is undergoing a series of tests. Prayers for answers and a clear treatment path appreciated.
