Thank You!

We want to say thank you from the deepest part of our hearts for the way this congregation of friends & family have absolutely poured into us and the boys from the moment Alex and Andrew stepped into our home. From the general help, supplies, meals, books, to the handmade blankets, and visits. These boys have been loved on like never before. They experienced neglect for the first year of their lives, but after less than a week in our home they have experienced the love of family & God, that we are confident is already working & is the only way to undo any previous trauma. We are tired. We are overwhelmed. And we are already more blessed through this experience than we ever could have imagined through knowing & loving these boys & the through the generous outpouring of love from this congregation.
